

The Green Family Art Foundation is pleased to present The Cabin LA Presents: A Curated Flashback, opening on February 11, 2023, and remaining on view until May 21, 2023.

The Cabin LA residency program was formed in 2015 when Danny First constructed a 120 square foot edifice in the backyard of his Hancock Park, LA home to share art with friends, fellow art lovers, and artists. First named this dedicated structure The Cabin. Shortly thereafter, First combined the shows he held at The Cabin with his practice of inviting emerging artists to his nearby art studio to create a residency program. He named this program The Cabin LA. Since 2015, The Cabin LA residency program has provided a space for artistic practice, experimentation, and growth for 72 artists who First felt had unique, although sometimes latent, talents. Many of the artists who have participated in The La Brea Studio Artist Residency have since been “discovered” and are experiencing great success in their careers. This curated group exhibition presents paintings by 42 graduates of The Cabin LA from 2015 through the present.
