

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

NUNO DE CAMPOS

F.D.R.

9 October- 8 November 2014

NEW YORK, NEW YORK - AMERINGER | McENERY | YOHE is pleased to announce an inaugural exhibition of recent works from Portuguese born, Brooklyn based artist, Nuno de Campos. The exhibition will be open 9 October and remain on view through 8 November 2014. A public reception for the artist will be held on 9 October from 6:00 to 8:00 PM.

Nuno de Campos' works are drawn and painted quietly and carefully. His practice is bound to the precision of the geometrical subject matter it depicts. However, these works are not purely visual. By entitling this project "F.D.R.", de Campos calls attention to the relationship between language, time, and place.

The city finds meaning in his realistic banal scenes, sensuously rendered with soft and luminous oil- based painted color, or with subdued grays of graphite on paper. His seemingly normal compositions are patches of over-looked reality that become all consuming upon close contemplation.

Depicting the F.D.R Drive in Lower Manhattan with a feeling of soft dystopian gloom, de Campos brings attention to the different levels of information ingrained in the urban landscape. In each of these works, time and space inform each other to create a single narrative. Each re-creates the feeling of pilgrimage and evokes a memory, whether individual or collective.

Nuno de Campos was born in 1969 in Porto, Portugal. He received his Master of Fine Arts degree in 1999 from Tufts University and School of Museum of Fine Arts in Boston, MA.

De Campos has participated in numerous exhibitions both nationally and internationally, which include Virginia Commonwealth University Art Gallery, Richmond, VA; La Montagne Gallery, Boston, MA; Galeria Casa Triângulo, São Paulo, Brazil; National Portrait Gallery, Smithsonian Institution, Washington, D.C.; and Greenberg Van Doren Gallery, New York, NY.

De Campos has received multiple awards including the Artist Fellowship in Painting, New York Foundation for the Arts, New York, NY; the Outwin Boochever Portrait Competition, 3rd Prize, National Portrait Gallery, Smithsonian Institution, Washington, D.C.; and The Pollock-Krasner Foundation Grant.

De Campos lives and works in Brooklyn, NY.

Ameringer | McEnergy | Yohe is open Tuesday through Saturday 10:00 AM to 6:00 PM and by appointment.
